

How Did I Pass my NEBOSH IGC With Credit? Tips-01

Hey! Eisa Jesus Pedines Jr here-- Author of the book 'Think and Become Safety Practitioner' thank you for trusting me. It is my pleasure to give you my advice. The moment you click the link that leads you to this document, congratulations, you have possessed a desire to obtain NEBOSH IGC. Yes I am not kidding... This FREE document from me is really for you. However, if you're just curious about it I promise you'll get something beneficial once you finish reading this simple tips.

My goal to take NEBOSH IGC was written in my diary notebook but didn't able to put a target date so it takes me five years before finally set my mind and enroll NEBOSH IGC on 2013. Before you continue reading, I just want to make it clear that I am not representing NEBOSH management neither Am in-connection with them as an agent or employee. Any details in this document mentioning some information about NEBOSH are based on my personal knowledge learned during my NEBOSH IGC training. In my book 'Think and Become Safety Practitioner' I mentioned some detail on how I passed this course. For your information I used the same strategies and lessons written in my first book especially lesson 1. Lesson 1 is about the power of prayers. I would suggest you to grab a copy of my first book if you are not yet practicing safety, this book will provide you a guide towards your journey in this profession. It is available online or check it out in your bookshops or click HERE.

I'll be mentioning some important steps I followed to overcome challenges from the day-1 of the training until I received the test results.

To become a safety practitioner doesn't require any college degree or bachelor's degree as well when taking NEBOSH courses. Having a degree and experiences on field are only an advantage but not a requirements. As long as you are dedicated and determined to obtain ANY particular goal your burning desire and faith plus your positive action will help you to achieve that goal.

Okay here is my first question. Do you know the meaning of NEBOSH IGC? NEBOSH IGC stands for National Examination Board in Occupational Safety and Health International General Certificate. For more information Click HERE.

The NEBOSH IGC is divided into three units. Were unit 1 or IGC1 and unit 2 or IGC2 required classroom examinations and the unit 3 or IGC3 is basically a practical examination or preparation of inspection report that can be carried out in your own workplace or at home. Unit-1 is about management of international health and safety, unit-2 focuses on control of international workplace hazards and unit-3 is the practical applications where you can apply what you've learn from unit-1 and unit-2. Syllabus and sample examination papers usually provided by the training provider and some previous examination papers were also provided but remember that those references aren't contain the actual examination answers but it will guide students to analyze how does or what the NEBOSH examiners look for when checking examination paper and submitted report.

NOTE: Once you've pass the NEBOSH IGC your credentials will be upgraded, it will level-up your qualification, your skills and ability on preparing safety reports will be more effective, your speed on analyzing and resolving safety related problem in the workplace will improve a lot. This is what I am experiencing now and I know you want to experience it too, right?

Now when you feel you're ready go for it but I would suggest you to write down all your reasons why you want to obtain NEBOSH IGC. Consider all advantages of having NEBOSH IGC. Also outline your plan how you able to achieved this goal. This exercise is very importance it has magic formula when used properly with faith.
